FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Testament professor joins SFTS faculty

San Anselmo, Calif., Feb. 29 – Dr. Annette Weissenrieder recently joined the SFTS faculty as an assistant professor of New Testament.

She received her Ph.D. in 2001 from Ruprecht-Karls-University in Heidelberg, Germany. She is author of Images of Illness in the Gospel of Luke. Insights of Ancient Medical Texts (Mohr Siebeck: Tuebingen 2003) and coeditor of Picturing the New Testament (with F. Wendt and P.V. Gemunden).

She is presently working on a monograph project, Temple in New Testament in the Light of Ancient Theory of Architecture and Numismatics and is in the final editing stage of Ancient Medical Texts and New Testament. A Sourcebook, Volume I (with T. Martin, Mohr Siebeck 2008).

Dr. Weissenrieder is engaged in research on New Testament anthropology, pneumatology and the interface between the Graeco-Roman world and the New Testament, especially ancient medicine and ancient visual art.
