

Ignatian Sites Today: Rome Highlights

Photos by Elizabeth Liebert

Chapel at La Storta

“I will be propitious to you in Rome”

“Italy is a true and excellent Jerusalem if you wish to reap a harvest in God’s Church”

--Paul III to Ignatius

Porta del Popolo

Porta and Piazza del Popolo

Palazzo Delfini

(third residence)

Palazzo Delfini

Piazza della Rotondo

San Pietro in Vaticano

Piazza San Pietro after a storm

Santa Maria Maggiori

Gardens at Tivoli

First boys'
orphanage,
1539-1542

Little girls' orphanage

Palazzo Venezia

Basilica de SanPaolo Fuori le Mura

Casa Santa Marta

Casa Santa Marta

Casa Santa Marta

Chiesa de SS. Dodici Apostoli

Ignatius's Rooms, Rome

Ignatius's writing desk

Our Lady of the Desk

Santa Caterina Dei Funari

Collegio Romanum

Sant' Ignazio

Chiesa del Gesú

Il Gesù at sunset from Sant' Ignazio

Altar of Ignatius

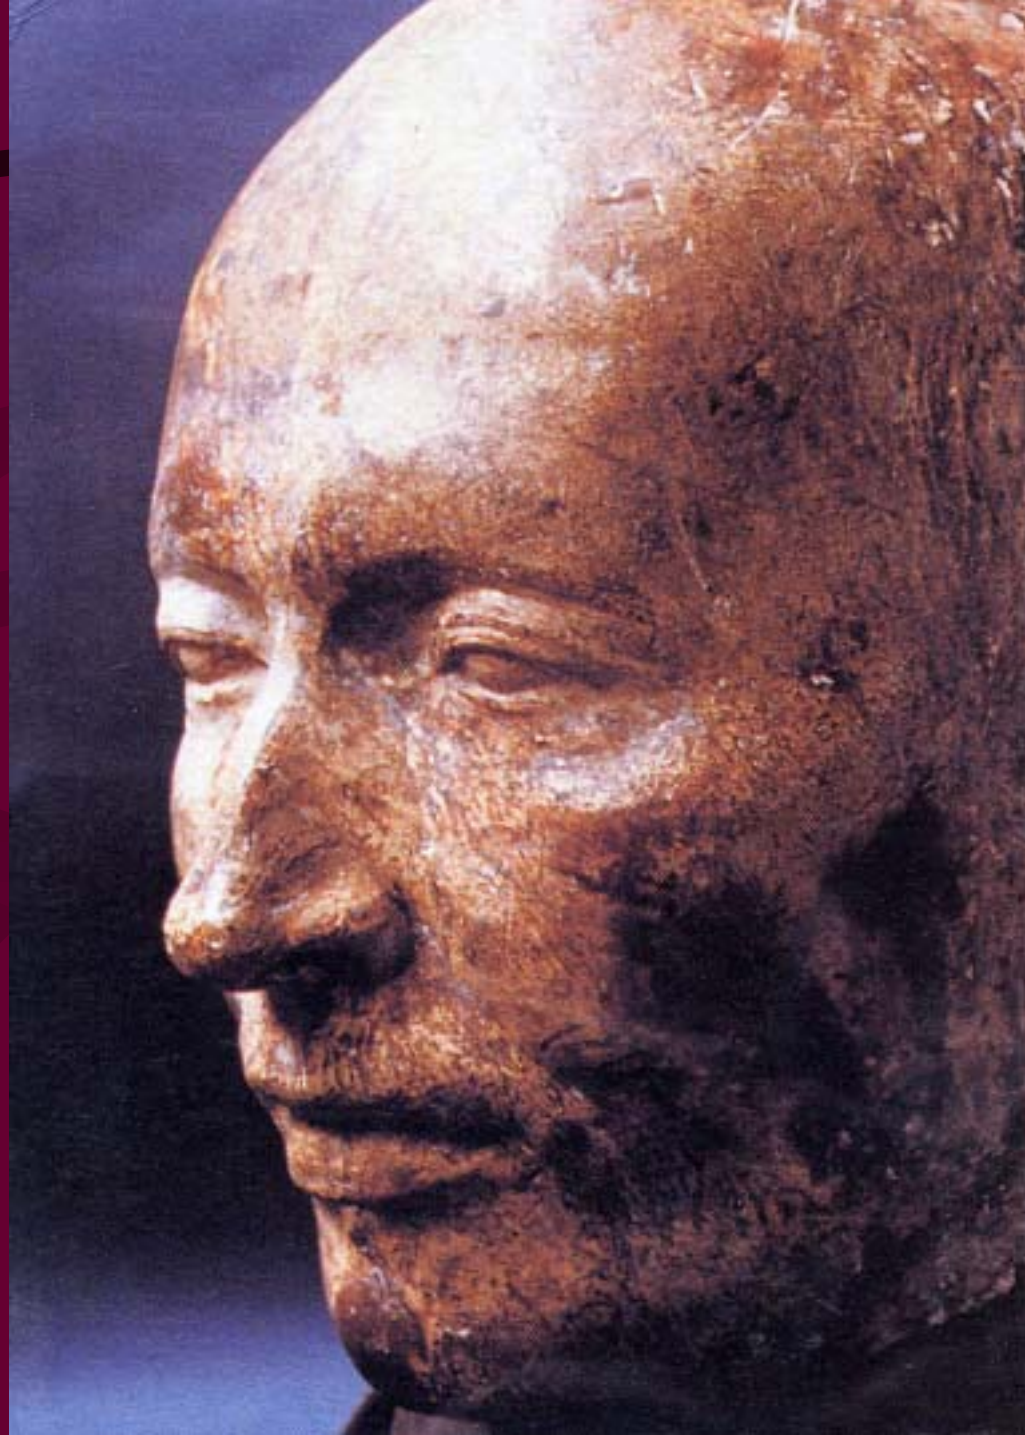

Maria dela
Strada
inside Il
Gesú

Approbation of the Society

Death mask of Ignatius

Small person, large personality

Further Resources

- Many of these photos can be found on my website: <http://joshua.sfts.edu/liebert--look> under Spiritual Exercises, Ignatian Visuals
- For a superbly illustrated version of Ignatius's life and times, see <http://www.ignatiushistory.info>
- For a one-person play of Ignatius's life, see "Ignatius of Loyola: The Story of a Pilgrim," by Michael Bellafiore, SJ (Video with study guide, Loyola Press, 2002)
- For an online version of the Spiritual Exercises, see <http://www.creighton.edu/CollaborativeMinistry/com-retreat.html>